10 Easy Steps To Great Digital Photos

Would you like to be able to take great digital photos to show all of your cruise memories to your friends and family back home? Just follow these ten easy steps to success.

1. Turn on your digital camera. Make sure that the battery is charged and that your camera is in 'camera mode' and not 'playback mode'.
2. Select your Subject – any interesting person, animal or object will do.
3. Find an Emphasis of your subject – for example: the eye on the dog, the cherry on a sundae, or the ladybug on a flower.
4. Proper Lighting – if you are inside away from sunlight, it might be best to use your flash. If you are outside, your back should be to the sun and the flash should be off.
5. Contrast – your photo should have both dark and light spots. The best way to do this is to imagine your photo in black and white: you should have a white spot, a black spot, and a gray spot.
6. Use the 'Rule of Thirds' – your emphasis shouldn't be in the center of your photograph. Imagine a tic-tac-toe across your photo. The emphasis should be at one of the 4 points where the lines cross.
7. Fill the Frame – try to make the subject take up the whole photo. Any empty space is negative space that takes away from your subject and emphasis.
8. Point of View – looking at something from eye level can be boring. Try taking the photo from above or below eye level.
9. Steady your camera – if you or your emphasis is shaking, your photo will probably be blurry. Try holding the camera close to your body. Tripods are helpful, but if you don't have one, hold the camera up to your eye instead of using the LCD screen.
10. Take the photo. Be careful not to move the camera immediately afterwards in case of shutter lag. To be safe, wait about 5 seconds.

Helpful Health Information

Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses – such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact – is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after restroom breaks and again before eating anything. Symptoms of Noroviruses include an upset stomach, vomiting and diarrhea. According to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Noroviruses affect 23 million Americans on land each year. In fact, the only illness that is more prevalent is the common cold. Should you experience any diarrhea and/or vomiting, please go to your stateroom and call 4319. The nurse on duty will then call you back for a complimentary telephone interview. Should you turn out to have GI illness the nurse may then decide that you need to be assessed in your stateroom. Such a visit and the treatment will be provided free of charge.
