Roseau, Dominica

Dominica (pronounced "Dom-in-eeek-a") is one of the largest and most northern of the Windward Islands in the West Indies. Situated between the French islands of Guadeloupe and Martinique, Dominica is bordered on the east by the vast and beautiful Atlantic Ocean and on the West by the calm and romantic Caribbean. Dominica was influenced by different cultures over the course of its history. Originally inhabited by Arawak and Carib Indians, colonized by Europeans (the English and French in particular), injected with a strong African influence during the 18th century, then flooded with American television in recent years. Today, Dominica's culture is as multi-faceted as the madras fabric worn as traditional dress.

Highlights

In Roseau, the town's name comes from the river reeds (roseaux in French) that grow profusely around the estuary. As you come ashore, you'll see the Dominica Museum, which faces the bayfront. Housed in an old market house dating from 1810, the museum's permanent exhibit provides a clear and interesting overview of the island's geology, history, archaeology, economy and culture.

Directly behind the museum is the Old Market Square which offers primarily handcrafts and souvenirs. The Public Market Place at the mouth of the Roseau River, is the Old Market Square's successor as the town's center of commercial activity.

Dominica's main historical attraction is "The Cabrits", one of the most impressive 18th century military installations in the West Indies. The remains of Fort Shirley are nestled in Cabrits National Park. The Fort Shirley military complex testifies to Dominica's colonial era.

Shore Excursions

Whether you're into trekking high into the mountaintops or exploring the watery world below, Dominica is the place to go for those who prefer hiking boots & flip-flops. If you want to indulge your sense of adventure up in the mountains go hiking, search for hidden pools, or view the ancient forests of the Morne Trois Pitons National Park, home to the spectacular Trafalgar Falls. If you prefer water activities than try the Champagne reef snorkel, river tubing or kayaking. Drop by and book with your Shore Excursion staff so that you don't miss on these amazing opportunities. Wondering what to do in St. Lucia? This island is famous for the Pitons, and these volcanic formations shouldn't be missed. To learn more stop by the Emporium on Deck 5 Midship at 8:00pm to discover more about this fascinating island.

Captain's Club

Select & Elite Senior Officer's Cocktail Party

7:45pm | Cosmos, Deck 11 Forward

Select & Elite Captain's Club members are invited to meet and mingle with our Senior Officers in an intimate atmosphere. Dress code is Smart Casual & Above: No shorts, T-shirts, flip-flops, bathing attire, and no rips or holes in jeans, if worn. Reminder: the 4:00-6:00p.m. Elite Social Hour in the Captain's Club Lounge will not take place today.

Information

Important Health Information

According to medical experts, the best way to prevent colds, flu, and gastrointestinal illnesses is to wash one's hands thoroughly with soap and hot water after bathroom breaks as well as before eating. Please wash your hands often and use the sanitizing stations provided throughout the ship, especially when you are coming from ashore.
