Guest Chef Kathleen Flinn

Kathleen is a writer, author and sometimes cooking and writing teacher who splits her time between Seattle, Washington and Anna Maria Island, Florida. In the mid-90s, she joined Microsoft as the founding restaurant producer for Sidewalk.com, the company's nationwide series of online city guides. In December 2003 she began to pursue a lifelong dream of studying at Le Cordon Bleu in Paris, earning a diplomate de cuisine in 2005. Author of the memoir The Sharper Your Knife, the Less You Cry, Kathleen presently serves as the chair of the Food Writers, Editors & Publishers section of the International Association of Culinary Professionals. She is also a member of the American Society of Journalists & Authors, Society of Professional Journalists and the Author's Guild.

Travel Guide Tom Vercillo

Tom's cruise ship career began in 1971 where he was Assistant Cruise Director to Ms. Jeraldine Saunders, author of the book The Love Boats. His love of ships is readily apparent in his casual and knowledgeable lecture style. He especially loves our ports of call in the Mediterranean because of the numerous archaeological sites that can be visited. Refer to the Explorations section of the Daily Program for details on Tom's talks.
